

Monitoring and Well Information Binder

IMPORTANT: This binder and the information therein will be kept on the well owner's property at all times. If the well owner decides to file a claim, the well owner will provide the binder and its contents to Wagner and Bonsignore, who will keep the information confidential when analyzing the data and determining any necessary compensation.

Table of Contents

Section 1 – Quick Reference Materials:

Voluntary Groundwater Monitoring Program FAQ Sheet

Map of Graton Rancheria Project Site and 2-mile Radius

The Notice of Meeting Letter from Graton Rancheria, dated October 10, 2012

Section 2 – Voluntary Groundwater Monitoring Program:

Well Owner's Voluntary Groundwater Monitoring Program

Section 3 – Technical Reference Materials and Diagrams:

Well Construction and Anatomy Diagram Sheet

Dept. of Water Resources Groundwater Level Measurements Terminology Diagram

Section 4 – Monitoring Data Sheets

Voluntary Groundwater Monitoring Program Well Information Sheet

U.S. Geological Survey Well Location Information Data Sheet

Dept. of Water Resources Groundwater Level Data Form

For questions or more information, contact Francesca Innocenti at 707-569-1448, Ext. 107